▼ Antiques
	Book	“Gabriel Conroy” - the only full length novel by the American short story master Bret Harte. First edition ©1876, American Publishing Company , Hartford, CT. Brown cloth covered boards with black & gold devices. Expected bumping of corners and frayed head & heel of spine, otherwise a solid tight copy of this rare volume.	No
	Bottle	Heavy Art Deco style embossed carbonic seltzer bottle - Carl H. Schultz , Brooklyn, NY. Bottle is etched by the distributor - Amity Harbor Beverages . Nice local history piece. 1930s?	No
	Campaign Mug	Small (approx. 3” tall) pressed glass mug ca. 1896 embossed with portraits of William Jennings Bryan and his presidential bid catch phrase, “The People’s Money.” (Jennings wanted the US to abandon the gold standard where a country’s paper money is backed by that country’s gold reserve - a system in place, on and off, from 1870 to 1971). Quite rare. We know of one in the Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn, MI and one at Cornell University. This mug originally had a glass lid, now lost, and a mate with the likeness of William McKinley - Bryan’s opponent in 1896. Maker unknown = perhaps McKee Bros.	No
